

Our People

Change agents and business enablers

We make great effort to be a pole of attraction for the industry's most talented, creative and passionate for quality professionals, offering a collaborative workplace that values innovation, broad-mindedness and big picture focus.

People at Athens Technology Center (ATC) are the founding base of the company's success and growth. We acknowledge and reward our executives' talent and build long term business relationships.

'Bottom-to-top' structure of our engineering teams

We are highly invested in people's rotation between teams, that are dedicated either to proprietary products' development or to commercial projects deployment. Our goal is to minimize idle working periods and also to promote teamwork, knowledge-sharing and personal development.

Expertise meets Talent meets Innovation

Within the framework of ATC's lifelong learning strategy, both technical and non-technical staff undergo a series of training programs. In fact, during the last fiscal year, such initiatives included

- 1 The completion of AUEB's Digital Marketing & Social Marketing program and specially designed webinars on GDPR policies
- 2 The participation in a variety of certification programs, such as Azure Developer Associate, Microsoft Partner Skills Academy, Business Analytics
- 3 Specially designed Agile Bootcamp, accompanied with respective IC Agile Certifications
- 4 Certifications on newest version of Epicor ERP (Kinetic)

Life at ATC

Hybrid working models were not strange for the company! The Covid19 pandemic just solidified the fact that we can be effective even when working remotely.

Throughout the past fiscal year We welcomed new recruits, providing them with the chance to have an actual, '360o' view of their new colleagues, even when off-site

- Welcome kit with ATC branded corporate products

Several team building activities were activated, promoting staff's wellbeing and work-life balance, aiming to keep people close to the company after a long period of confinement and solely remote working

- Discovering hiking trails in Greece

- Taking a break from work, exercising, and having fun all together

- Christmas outdoor recreational activities with ATC people and their families

- Celebrated our commitment to close the gender gap and showed our appreciation to the company's #WomenInTech who passionately stand as Smart Business Enablers

- Focused on sparking employee engagement and boosting employee advocacy
